EDITORIAL

With this issue we have included the 2012 Index which is produced for MAR every year by Paul Tiller (it is also available as a PDF if you look in the MAR PDF folder at www.mar.co.uk (for those readers who access the PDF version).

Because the 2012 Index is in the middle of the magazine (for those who wish to extract it and file it with your 2012 issues of MAR), the Foreign Forces section is split around it (and also smaller than usual - but a bigger section next month when other sections are usually smaller). We would like some more reports from the USA so, if you are visiting or travelling in the States, please remember to send Moray any details of what you see, no matter how short!

Finally, just a quick explanation of the breakdown between MAR and @MAR - MAR mainly concentrates on movements, air show reports and sightings from around the World (we have had a recent complaint about lack of reports on exercises - the answer to that is that there are very few now in comparison to 10 years ago and we can only report on those that do take place if someone sends us a report on what they saw!). @MAR has a coverage of historical articles and run downs and current sections dealing with updating the air forces around the world - both serial wise and news wise. A sample copy can be seen at www.mar.co.uk.

COVER PHOTOGRAPH: WHLAgusta AW-159 Wildcat AH.1 ZZ408 of the Wildcat Fielding Team (Army) at Yeovilton on January 30th - there is a black protrusion between the 0 and 8 which distorts the serial on the port side (Rod Burden)

Closing date for the March issue is 08.03.13

BRITISH REVIEW

Several changes are a foot with Yeovilton. In the coming months 1 Regiment will move from Gutersloh, Germany and 9 Regiment from Dishforth to Yeovilton. 846NAS now have no operational Sea King HC.4's and the Squadron is getting ready for disbandment. Finally all 847NAS Lynx AH.9As have left Yeovilton, leaving them no aircraft.

It has just been discovered that the following name changes took place recently at the following MoD Facilities;

The Defence College of Aeronautical Engineering (DCAE) at Cosford was changed to Defence School College of Aeronautical Engineering (DSAE)

The School of Electrical & Aeronautical Engineering (SEAE) at Arborfield was changed to the Defence School of Electro-Mechanical Engineering (DSEME).

The Defence College of Aeronautical Engineering (DCAE) at Gosport was changed to the Defence School of Marine Engineering (DSMarE).

The Gazelle Depth Servicing Hub (GDSH) located at Middle Wallop is now called the Multi Platform Support Unit (MPSU).....

Mick Boulanger (Military movements is history, now and for our future)

RAF SYERSTON - A visit here on the 17.01 produced the following airframes:

Vigilant T.1:

ZH115/TA	ZH125/TL	ZH127/TN*	ZH186/TY	ZH263/UV	ZH264/UW*	ZH270/SC*
ZJ960/SH	ZJ963/SL*	ZJ967/SM	ZZ192/SQ	ZZ193/SR.

Those marked * were undergoing maintenance. The rest are ACCGS operated which is now part of 3 FTS at Cranwell. Three of the Vigilant's now carry a small crest under the cockpit and are named: ZJ967 "Sir Roderick", ZZ192 "Sir Iain" ZZ193 "Her Ladyship" The names are in deference to the MacRobertson family who donated funds to the high performance gliders that the Air Cadets used to operate (but which were sadly sold on).

Viking T.1:

ZE499/VD	ZE503/VG	ZE504/VH	ZE524/VM	ZE529/VR	ZE559/WG	ZE560/WH
ZE590/WT	ZE605/XE	ZE609/XJ	ZE625/X	ZE650/YB	ZE656/YH	ZE678/YN
ZE683/YT	ZE684/YU

ZE521/VK was also present in the ACCGS hangar having just emerged from a trailer, presumably having just made the long trek from 626 VGS Predannack. Also present in the ACCGS hangar, but de-rigged, was ZE562/WK. Present and rigged was ZE680/YQ looking a bit sorry. This machine was ACCGS but has been involved in RAE trials with various wires and gauges added. Apparently considered no longer fit to fly by some! In the Viking maintenance shop was ZE682/YS late of 622VGS, Arbroath, presume this will return to Arbroath in due course

In the storage hangar were the following Vikings:

ZE498/VC	ZE531/VT	ZE532/VU	ZE552/VZ	ZE553/WA	ZE555/WC	ZE557/WE
ZE561/WJ	ZE584/WP	ZE591/WU*	ZE601/XA	ZE602/XB*	ZE608/XH*	ZE626/XQ*
ZE633/XX	ZE657/YJ	ZE658/YK	ZE679/YP

Of these those marked * are waiting servicing, the rest are either in store or waiting servicing by CGMF. It's not obvious which is stored and which is awaiting its turn on the servicing line. There is a back-log of those awaiting treatment.

Due to an unfortunate error on my part, the wrong 'Military Aviation Review United Kingdom 2013' file was sent to Brian Pickering and regrettably it was printed in last months MAR. This I apologise for, my only defence was I was ill at the time. So to make amends I have listed all those aircraft missing and amended the typos. If anyone wants a full copy please contact me and I will mail/email them a full copy.

News regarding the based units -

Co B/1 MIB - Regarding RC-12K 85-0152, the aircraft is still present and has not returned to the USA as was speculated last month. However, RC-12X 92-13122 has returned to the USA, presumably to receive the full RC-12X update (departed on 5th as "Argus 55" via Prestwick and then Keflavik)) and 93-0701 has taken its place as the training aircraft.

G/52 AVN - Additional UH-60A(C)s noted in January were 87-24589 and 87-24642.

Finally C/1-214 AVN UH-60A 89-26138 which arrived for maintenance on 20.12 had gone by 29.1.
